

433MHz (2001-current)

These new generation transmitters, feature High Security Code Hopping Technology transmitting a unique code chosen randomly from 4.29 billion possible codes that change each time the transmitter is used. They are available in 2 or 4 channels for operating additional merlin garage or gate openers or merlin compatible receivers. Available in a full size transmitter or key ring size. Easily identified by the round green button.

40.685MHz (1994-2001)

The model M802 / M804 transmitters has superseded the 2100 and M800

Discontinued models (refer upgrade pack M034)

Model 2200
Blue Square Button
(Approx. 1992-1994, 303MHz)

Model 2000
White Square button
(Approx. 1987-1992, 339.9MHz)

Model 1000
Red Square Button
(Approx. 1986-1987, 339.9MHz)

These transmitters do not meet current radio regulations in New Zealand, Australia or Europe and are not legal to sell. They are no longer manufactured. No other transmitter is compatible with these models. An upgrade pack (M034) is available see above.